

Extend Support to Healthcare and Welfare Workers Through Provision of Housing: Start Collaboration with TRYT Inc.

Leopalace21 Corporation (Headquarters: Nakano-ku, Tokyo; President and CEO: Bunya Miyao; "the Company") announced that it began collaboration with TRYT Inc. (Headquarters: Shinagawa-ku, Tokyo and Osaka City, Osaka; CEO: Hidetaka Sasai; "TRYT") with the aim of supporting healthcare and welfare workers through housing.

Background of Collaboration

Leopalace21 has been supporting healthcare workers throughout Japan through its Healthcare Worker Support Plan in response to the spread of the new coronavirus infection. Now that the infection has eased, the Company has entered this collaboration in order to strengthen support for issues such as labor shortages and hard-working conditions that are still considered problematic in the medical and welfare industry.

Through the collaboration between the Company, which provides rental housing across the country, and TRYT, which provides multifaceted support for essential workers, they will jointly strengthen the support for medical and welfare workers.

Outline of Collaboration

Leopalace21 will offer the following benefits for the medical and welfare workers* who sign up for the contracts on and after February 28, 2025.

Benefit A: No key money, and

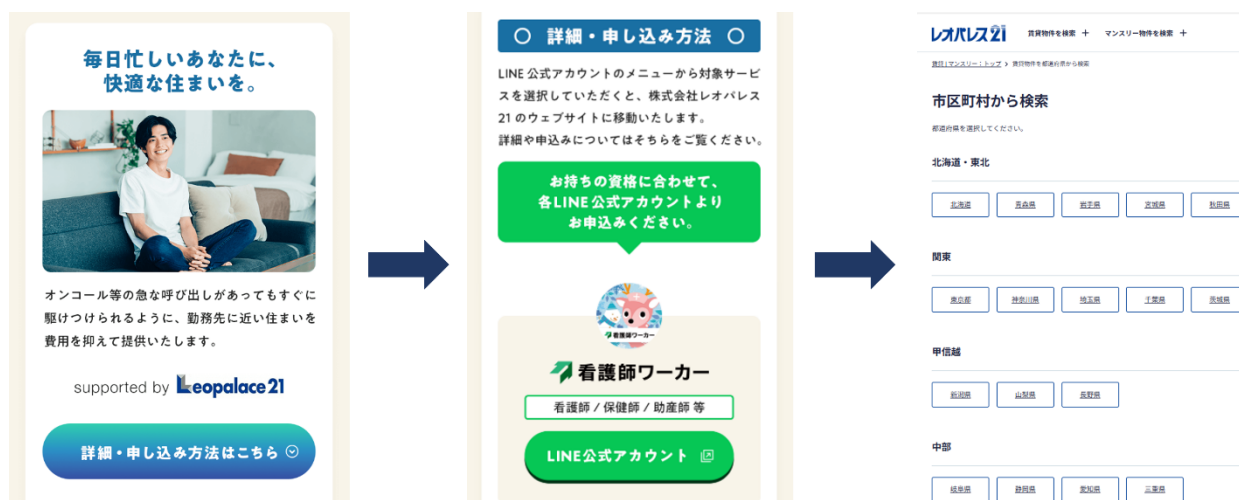

Benefit B: JPY 20,000 discount from the contract fee
